[REDACTED] AND UNITED STATES CONGRESSMAN DAN ROSTENKOWSKI FOR PERIOD OF 60 DAYS, EFFECTIVE 3/15/94, TO EXPIRE 5/13/94.

THE USE OF THESE ELECTRONIC DEVICES IN THIS CASE IS BEING GRANTED IN THAT THEY ARE EXPECTED TO PROVIDE CORROBORATIVE EVIDENCE AND/OR PROTECT THE INDIVIDUAL(S) UTILIZING THE EQUIPMENT. SPECIFICALLY, THESE CONSENSUALLY RECORDED CONVERSATIONS MAY YIELD MOTIVE EVIDENCE REGARDING CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS THAT HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED IN THE "PLATE BLOCK" INVESTIGATION. THIS MOTIVE EVIDENCE WOULD RELATE TO THE POSSIBLE MOTIVE FOR THEFTS AND EMBEZZLEMENTS FROM THE UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON THE PART OF CONGRESSMAN ROSTENKOWSKI AS BEING ABLE TO PAY GAMBLING DEBTS.

THE PURPOSE OF A CONSENSUALLY RECORDED CONVERSATION WITH CONGRESSMAN ROSTENKOWSKI IS NOT TO DEVELOP EVIDENCE OF POSSIBLE GAMBLING HABITS OF THE CONGRESSMAN NOR DELVE INTO OTHER EXTRANEOUS ACTIVITIES. AS MIAMI AND WMFO HAVE AGREED, CW WILL DEVELOP ONLY THAT EVIDENCE THAT CORROBORATES AND COMPLEMENTS KNOWN CRIMINAL ACTIVITY AS DEVELOPED IN THE "PLATE BLOCK"

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 4/4/94

[redacted] telephone number [redacted] was contacted telephonically with the intent of setting up an appointment to see her husband. [redacted] furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] was [redacted] husband for 55 years but he passed away on December 11, 1991. [redacted] was told that the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) wanted to interview her husband because of gifts that her husband may have received from Representative DAN ROSTENKOWSKI. [redacted] knew that her husband was a lobbyist in Washington, D.C., for the Delaware River Port Authority and that at one time he worked for a construction firm in Pleasantville, N.Y., but she knew very little about what he did as a lobbyist. [redacted] knows that her husband knew Representative ROSTENKOWSKI but she did not know anything about the dealings that he had with Representative ROSTENKOWSKI. [redacted] would occasionally ask questions of her husband about his work and he would tell her that she was prying and he would not talk about his work. [redacted] knows of no gifts that Representative ROSTENKOWSKI gave to her husband. [redacted] was asked if her husband had an office and she stated that although it may sound strange she does not know if her husband had an office. [redacted] has never seen any items in her house with Representative ROSTENKOWSKI'S name on them or which appear to have come from Representative ROSTENKOWSKI.

[redacted] advised that he has been a close friend and supporter of Rep. DAN ROSTENKOWSKI for about 20 years. [redacted] stated that he has provided legislative advice to ROSTENKOWSKI in the area of tax exempt bonds as they related to "sky boxes" at the stadium where the Chicago White Sox baseball team plays, a team of which he is a part owner. [redacted] thought that over the years ROSTENKOWSKI may have asked him questions regarding the insurance industry but it was not that often as the insurance industry is state regulated. [redacted] advised that most of the conversations that he would have with ROSTENKOWSKI were regarding world events. [redacted] would attend dinners with ROSTENKOWSKI on an irregular basis at Gibson's Restaurant. He did not attend any golf event referred to as a "Goatwalk". [redacted] contributed $5000 in 1993 to the ROSTENKOWSKI Legal Defense Fund.

[redacted] stated that he thought the chair he received was given to him around Christmas although he was not positive of the delivery time. Any gifts that [redacted] would have provided to ROSTENKOWSKI were probably business related.

[redacted] advised that he would not characterize himself as a member of a "Kitchen Cabinet" of ROSTENKOWSKI's. [redacted] advised that in 1987 he attended a fundraiser for ROSTENKOWSKI which was hosted by [redacted] and contributed $1000, and he and his wife both contributed $1000 in 1992 to ROSTENKOWSKI. Several Near North executive employees also contributed in 1992, but none of those contributions were at [redacted] request or direction.

[redacted] was interviewed in the presence of his attorney, [redacted]. Also present for this interview was AUSA [redacted]. After being advised of the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] advised that he sees Rep. DAN ROSTENKOWSKI about six to eight times per year for dinner and golf outings. When he goes to dinner with ROSTENKOWSKI there are usually a number of people that attend and the people can include [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted]. These dinners are very informal and seldom are matters of Federal legislation discussed during the dinners and [redacted] did not think that ROSTENKOWSKI used these gatherings with his friends as forums. [redacted] recalled that the only time that he spoke to ROSTENKOWSKI regarding legislation was in the 1970's and early 1980's when [redacted] had to testify before the U.S. Senate. During the 1990's, [redacted] has explained the position of the electric power industry to ROSTENKOWSKI and any legislative advise given to him would be in that general area.

[redacted] believed that he first met ROSTENKOWSKI in the year 1965 when he was appointed to the Junior Board of Directors for Mercy Hospital. Several times [redacted] has advised ROSTENKOWSKI about speaking engagements in the city of Chicago that he is invited to regarding the importance of the people inviting him to speak and their membership size. During this advise that he provided, legislative agenda was never discussed.

[redacted] stated that he has probably contributed to ROSTENKOWSKI several hundred dollars for his campaigns and that he plays no role whatever in his PAC. ROSTENKOWSKI has never asked him to contribute. Regarding his receipt of gifts, due to an employee rotational system, no one would recall the delivery of any gifts and he does not recall the time of year that the gifts arrived. [redacted] believed that the chair he received was delivered to his office, but was not positive. [redacted] advised

[redacted] Also present at this interview, in addition to [redacted] was Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted]. After being advised of the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] advised that he does not "presume" to give advice on Governmental matters. [redacted] advised that he has spoken with members of the Illinois Delegation regarding military matters, but since ROSTENKOWSKI is Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, these issues do not affect ROSTENKOWSKI's work in the Congress extensively. [redacted] advised that the gifts that were provided to him by ROSTENKOWSKI were given to him out of friendship and not in appreciation or of compensation for advice given on representational matters.

b7C

ROSTENKOWSKI has never asked him for donations to any charities or for any other purpose after giving him a black wooden chair or a crystal sculpture miniature replica of the United States Capitol. [redacted] stated that it would "be the last thing he would do, it didn't happen, it would be totally out of character". [redacted] advised that he has given to the Mercy Hospital Fund, which is a favorite charity of ROSTENKOWSKI. [redacted] stated that this contribution to the Mercy Hospital Fund was of his own.

b6

In 1987, [redacted] and DICK OGILVIE, the former Republican Governor of Illinois, held a fund raiser for ROSTENKOWSKI in order to discourage any challengers to him. [redacted] advised that he, as well as many other individuals who had received chairs from ROSTENKOWSKI, donated $1,000 to this event. [redacted] plans to donate to the Legal Defense Fund at the request of [redacted] and [redacted], who held a lunch meeting regarding the Fund. ROSTENKOWSKI himself has never asked for political contributions, [redacted] said, further stating, "it doesn't fit him".

[redacted] advised he is aware of the Americas Leaders' Fund and that he knows its purpose, but that he is not involved with this Political Action Committee. Both of [redacted] sons worked as interns for ROSTENKOWSKI in 1987 or in 1988 and that one of his sons [redacted] worked during the "Write Rosty" period, sorting mail for ROSTENKOWSKI.

b7C

[redacted] advised that the wooden chair he received from ROSTENKOWSKI was delivered to the 45th Ward office, but that no one recalls the details of the delivery. [redacted] stated he did recall a telephone call from [redacted] who said to him, "I got a chair for you. Where do you want it sent?" [redacted] advised he told her to send it to the 45th Ward offices. [redacted] stated that he believed that the crystal Capitol sculpture he received from ROSTENKOWSKI was received at his law office and not the 45th Ward office, as he originally thought, because that is where the Capitol was located. [redacted] advised that he was sure that it was not personally presented to him by ROSTENKOWSKI, and that he assumed the gifts both came around Christmas time, the crystal Capitol approximately two years ago, and the chair several years ago.

[redacted] advised that he has no recollection of sending a thank you note to ROSTENKOWSKI, and would be very surprised if he had sent him one. [redacted] stated that he would have thanked ROSTENKOWSKI for his gifts verbally.

[redacted] further advised that he worked to elect ROSTENKOWSKI in the precincts that overlapped into his district. [redacted] stated that he is not associated with The AMERICA'S LEADERS FUND, that he does not know [redacted] and that he has never made any contributions to ROSTENKOWSKI campaigns or his PAC as he had his own expenses to take care of. [REDACTED] advised that "the tenor of the meetings with ROSTENKOWSKI was social".

b7C

[REDACTED] recalled that he received a crystal Capitol sculpture from ROSTENKOWSKI, as well as a chair from the Congressman, and that he received the Capitol sculpture first before he received the chair, and that he was relatively sure that both of these gifts arrived at Christmas time of different years. [REDACTED] advised that he did not discuss these gifts he received from ROSTENKOWSKI with [REDACTED]
